

Venue: Wickford Junior School

Market Rd, Wickford SS12 0AG

Audience: Inclusion Managers, SENCOs, Senior leaders

Cost: £60 per person +vat

Programme

This session will be an opportunity for Inclusion Managers / SENCOs to focus on what effective provision looks like within the classroom and delegation of roles and responsibilities to ensure that individual needs of our vulnerable pupils are met.

Sessions will cover:

- Establishing shared and consistent systems
- Developing the ethos of all adults being responsible for all SEN pupils and the role of the TA
- Developing the class teacher's responsibility for SEN pupils
- Monitoring for impact in classrooms

Autumn Term - 16th October 2018 at Wickford Junior School

Sue Cox has significant experience as an adviser, with her particular area of expertise lying in special educational needs, and behaviour and safety. She inspects the following provision: primary, secondary, special, ASD, MLD, SLD, SPLD, HI, PMLD, PD, SLC, VI, BESD, PRU, s162a, as well as EYFS, and Early Years Provision. Sue has been an assistant headteacher for inclusion in a secondary school and has worked in a PRU.

To book

email: <mailto:lesley.binnell@impetus-education.co.uk>

our website: <http://www.impetus-education.co.uk>