

English Subject Leader Termly Updates Session 1 – 2018 Spellings

Evening twilight 4-5.30pm Wednesday 26th September 2018

Led by: Keely Adams, Impetus Consultant

Venue: Larchwood Primary School

Larchwood Gardens, Pilgrims Hatch, Brentwood, Essex, CM15 9NG

Audience: English subject leaders, Senior leaders

Focus: To share a range of spelling strategies.

Cost: £60 per person +vat

Programme

4pm – 5.30pm at Larchwood Primary School

This session is the first of the termly subject leader update meetings which will take place across the year. It will build on previous discussions we have had around spellings in the English curriculum and give practitioners an opportunity to share best practice and inform future decisions.

This session will cover:

- Spelling systems that are being used to support children in school.
- The place of the spelling test.
- How we use spellings to inform writing assessments.

There will be further sessions next year covering relevant developments in English and providing opportunities for delegates to share good practice.

Spring Term – 23 January 2019 at Larchwood Primary School

Summer Term – 22 May 2019 at Larchwood Primary School

Keely Adams is the acting assistant head and English leader at Larchwood Primary School, an Outstanding school in Brentwood, Essex. She is responsible for the English curriculum throughout KS1 and KS2. Keely currently teaches a year 6 class but also has experience in a range of other year groups. In her previous school Keely was a school improvement leader where she focused on developing teaching and learning across all subjects and she has also worked as an English advisor for the local authority where she supported a number of schools in their development and leadership of English.

To book

email:

<mailto:lesley.binnell@impetus-education.co.uk>

our website:

<http://www.impetus-education.co.uk>