This session is the second of the termly subject leader update meetings which will take place across the year. Having focused more on greater depth in reading in one of our updates last year, this session will be a chance to look at greater depth in writing in preparation for our summer term moderation update.

This session will cover:

- Greater depth expectations in writing.
- How to ensure higher attainers achieve greater depth and make good progress.
- Opportunities to share current good practice in achieving greater depth.
- Part of the session will also be set aside to discuss topics requested at the autumn subject leader update.

There will be a further session next term covering relevant developments in English and providing opportunities for delegates to share good practice.
