We are holding two twilight sessions on Preparing for the new Relationships and Health Curriculum 2020. We look at new expectations for the Primary curriculum, where changes have been made, and new topics that schools are expected to deliver in the draft guidance.

These are not simply information sessions - we will take a deeper look at the subject knowledge for new topics such as nutrition and sleep, and will be filling in a 'provision tool' to ensure your school is not overwhelmed by change (much of the content in your PSHE, PE, Science and Food Technology curricular will be sufficient for the new curriculum), then we identify specific areas that need further coverage. We will also look at how to communicate this to your Governors, parents and support staff, and how to ensure you are covering all compulsory aspects of the new draft Relationships and Health Curriculum for 2020.

Delegates will leave feeling informed, supported and ambitious to improve Relationship and Health Education in their schools.

His particular strengths lie in supporting schools in making the journey from good to outstanding utilising the vast range of experiences and resources he has developed in making his own journey as a leader.
